ASTIGMATISM.

What It Is, and How Corrected.

Astigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cone. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the ophthalmometer reveals the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T.
JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful instrument. Office hours 9:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 302 1/2 S. Elm St.

TO MR. CARLAND'S MEMORY.

Resolutions Adopted By Paisley Enc.
No. 10, I. O. O. F.

Whereas: In the inscrutable dealings of an all-wise Providence, our encampment has been called upon to mourn the loss of another brother patriarch, H. H. Carland, who on April 14th was summoned from this earthly encampment, guided by the hand of God passed the watches to enter the tent of the holy patriarchs in that Eternal Encampment beyond the skies, and Whereas: Our order has suffered an irreparable loss by his death, and his presence in our meetings, his wisdom in our deliberations and his companionship with the patriarchs is no more, and

Whereas: He lived in his life the three great underlying principles of odd fellow hip—friendship, love and truth, and his death leaves a wide vacancy, not only in our membership, but in the entire community; Therefore be it resolved, 1st. That we spread upon our records this simple tribute to our love and respect for our departed brother, and while bowing with meekness to the sovereign will of Him whose judgments are unsearchable and His ways past finding out, we cannot but mourn the death of him who was so true as a friend, so faithful as an Odd Fellow and so eminently useful to our community.

2nd. That we extend to the bereaved widow and fatherless children our heartfelt sympathy in their affliction and that we send them a copy of these resolutions, adopted by us, to his memory.

Committee.

HELLO, WINSTON!

Greensboro in Telephonic Communication With The Twin-City.

The Interstate Telephone Company today connected Greensboro with Winston-Salem, and a Telegram representative exchanged greetings with several citizens of that city, through the kindness of Mr. C. E. Eagan, of Durham, the general manager of the company, who is here. The new line works like a charm, the wire conveying the voice, with its finest inflections, perfectly. A watch was placed at the transmitter here and the operator at the Winston end stated that he heard its ticking with perfect distinctness. He then allowed a small Swiss watch to send its "tick" back to the reporter, whose ear caught the sound as readily and easily as if the timepiece had been within an inch of his ear.

The Interstate line at Winston is extended to Charlotte, Salisbury, Mocksville and other cities, and Greensboro citizens can now talk to friends in these places via Winston-Salem.

The new line will, very soon, be connected with the McAdoo system here.

Will Close at Seven.

Beginning with next Monday the mercantile establishment of Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees will close their doors strictly at seven o'clock in the evening, in order that their clerks and employees may have needed rest.
This is a very commendable resolution on the part of these enterprising merchants, who very correctly deem a period of 12 hours sufficient for one day's work for an employee. It is hoped that other houses will do likewise.

The Gate City Band.

The Gate City band, which has been practicing on Monday and Wednesday nights for some time, has mastered several difficult pieces, and may soon appear in public. The band now plays about a dozen pieces—marches, overtures, waltzes, etc.—rendering rendering most of them exceedingly well. There are nineteen members, all good musicians and every one of them takes great interest in the success of the organization. Claude Elam, the clever leader, is a splendid cornetist and what is no less essential, popular with the members of the band. After a few more weeks of practice the band will make its debut.

Boys and parents of boys, we want to call your attention to our line of wear. We have tan shoes in light and dark shades for big boys at $1.50, $1.50, shoes with leather soles, small sizes 85 cents, large sizes $1.00. Thacker &

LAWTON'S COMMAND MARCHES

To Novaliches—Little Opposition Encountered—Governor Green Issues a Statement.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, April 22—Lawton's command marched to Novaliches today.
One town was found deserted on the march, and but little opposition was encountered. One small force of the enemy was met, but it was easily repulsed by a few shots. One North Dakota was wounded.

Lawton will probably join McArthur but is making a wide detour with the idea of rounding up the rebels and driving them further back into the interior and putting a stop to their night guerrilla attacks upon our forces along the railroads.

WILL NOT DEMAND THEIR RETURN.

Salem, Ore., April 22—Gov. Greer, in reply to the numerous requests that he demand of the government the return home of the Oregon volunteers, has issued a statement to the effect that he would consider such proceedings a discredit to the state and an injustice to the soldiers themselves, who were anxious to go the Philippines and see active service.

STARVED AT SEA.

Deputy Naval Officer and Eight Companions Found Dead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

San Francisco, April 22—The steamship City of Para brings details of the death of E. W. Mastlin, a deputy naval officer of this port, together with eight companions, who starved at sea.
The frail boat in which they left El Triunfo, last December, after having been storm-swept for many weeks, was found by natives on the beach not far from Corrientes a few days ago.
Vultures were perched on the gunwale and nine almost unrecognizable bodies lay in the bottom of the boat.

HEAVY WEIGHT KNOCKED OUT.

And Now "Kid" Lavelle Is in a Dangerous Condition.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Pittsburg, Penn., April 22—"Kid" Lavelle, of Chester, Pa., is in an extremely dangerous condition at St.
Joseph Hospital today. Since he was knocked out in the Homestead fight last night by heavyweight Cavanaugh he has not recovered consciousness.
Cavanaugh and everybody connected with the fight have been arrested.

At His Condition.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, April 22—Ex-Governor Altgeld is critically ill at his home here. He is suffering from the grip and two physicians are in constant attendance. It is reported today that his condition is of the gravest nature, and his friends have decided to call several additional doctors.

Naval Demonstration.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Sassari Island, Sardinia, April 22—The King and Queen of Italy arrived last evening on the royal yacht Sarolo, which passed between the British and Italian fleets. All the warships were illuminated. The fleets this morning hoisted the Italian ensign, preparatory to being reviewed. The spectacle was grand.

Mistrial.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Charleston S. C., April 22—The jury in the Lake City lynching case today reported their inability to agree after being out for twenty-five hours. In dismissing the jury Judge Brawley was again moved to tears as he referred to the crime. The case goes over to the next term of court for retrial.

Postoffice Robbed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Philadelphia, April 22—The safe in the postoffice at Wyncote, a fashionable suburb, was dynamited early this morning. The interior was completely wrecked and a quantity of second-class matter burned. The thieves secured seven hundred dollars in stamps, money, money order blanks, etc.

Gas Explosion.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Whiting, W. Va., April 22—The explosion of a natural gas pipe line yesterday night caused the destruction of a trestle and a station building at Caplina, on the Ohio Valley railway.

THE DEMOCRATS ARE GLAD

That Speaker Reed Is Going To Retire.

THIS FEELING NOT PERSONAL.

It Is Thought That His Retirement Will Bring Chaos to The Republicans in The House.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, D. C., April 22—Among Democrats in Congress who are in the city there is a general feeling of satisfaction over the prospect of the retirement of Speaker Reed. This feeling is not due to any personal hostility to Thomas B. Reed, for, in spite of the fact that the speaker for the past ten years has been the target for Democratic denunciations on the floor of the House, there is no one on the Republican side of the chamber who is better liked among the Democrats than the big man from Maine. His ability as a debater and parliamentarian is fully recognized, and socially he is a "good fellow." During the sessions of the House, when the body is in committee of the whole, the speaker mingles among the Democrats as much, or more, than he mingles among the members of the minority. The feeling of satisfaction among the minority arises from the fact that it is generally believed that Mr. Reed's retirement will bring chaos to the Republican party in the House of Representatives, and that with so many diversified interests it will be difficult for any speaker of less force and ability, and character of Mr. Reed, to hold the party to any fixed policy. Democratic congressmen believe, too, that much friction will be engendered among the majority over the succession to Speaker Reed, and already there are intimations that the contest may take a sectional turn.
With such a narrow majority as the Republicans possess in the next House of Representatives any friction or divisions in the party must necessarily redound to the benefit of the Democracy in the great national contest which is near at hand. While there appears to be no doubt on the point of Mr. Reed's retirement, several Republicans still refuse to believe the report until it comes directly from Mr. Reed himself.

General Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, who is now residing in Washington city, it is reported has become interested in several mining interests in the south, in which it is hoped to realize considerable gains.
General Hampton, although an old man, carries his age well and says that he does not feel much older than he did when he was in the senate.

Several young lady students from Hollins Institute, Roanoke, are in Washington for a few days sightseeing.
The girls from this well known institute make a practice of visiting Washington annually about this time, and, of course, always have a good time.
They spent yesterday visiting the capitol, monument and various public buildings. While in the city they are stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel.

It is understood that they leave Washington for Roanoke tonight.

President Tyler, of William and Mary College, who has been in the city for several days for the purpose of raising funds for the college, has gone to New York city where he will continue his efforts. The president has been very successful in his labors in this city, and before leaving Washington he said that his prospects in the city of New York are very encouraging, and he hopes to realize a handsome sum. While in Washington he was the guest of Hon. Frank Hume, the well known Virginia leader.

Announcement is made at the treasury department that the contract for the supply of fuel for the Asheville public building, Asheville, North Carolina, has been awarded to the Asheville Ice Company.

Captain J. B. Hussey, of Greensboro, North Carolina, who has been residing in Washington for some time and who has been very sick, is reported to be slightly better, although his physicians and friends still regard him as a very sick man.

Mr. J. F. Hays, of Sapphire, North Carolina, is in Washington for a few days, stopping at the St. James hotel.
He is here on personal business.

Charles H. Lewter has been commissioned postmaster at Lewiston, North Carolina.

Junius W. Denning has been commissioned postmaster at Myatt Mills.
Special service has been discontinued in North Carolina at Oxnore, Columbus county, North Carolina, from Clarkton, to take effect April 29th.

The War of The Roses.

Not the historical strife of the houses of York and Lancaster exactly—still you will find history repeating itself in a peaceful contest, and we are promised you shall know all about it next week. So read the Telegram.

THE TELEPHONE CABLE

Will be Put in Next Week, the Weather Permitting.

Greensboro's telephone service will soon be second to none in the state.
The system outgrew the the present arrangements several months ago and Manager McAdoo has been unable to put in 'phones as fast as they have been ordered, but after next week all orders will be filled and the system will have ample room to grow. The cable which has been needed for so long, will be put in next week, if the weather will permit. The large wire to support it was stretched this week.
The cable will accommodate one hundred wires and the full number will be put in at the start. The long distance line to Winston-Salem will then be connected and Greensboro hellos will be responded to from the Twin-City.
The system will be perfect and when the long-considered work is finished, Manager McAdoo of the local system, and General Manager Eagan of the Interstate will shake hands and be happy.

Oak Ridge, Please.

Prof. J. Allen Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute, was in the city today to confer with General Manager C. E. Eagan, of the Interstate Telephone Company, in regard to securing a long distance telephone line to Oak Ridge.
He made arrangements to tap the Greensboro-Winston line at Kernersville, and the Oak Ridge line will be constructed soon. This will give Oak Ridge connection with Greensboro, Winston, and all the principal towns in this section.

PARION BUTLER.

Senator Marion Butler, it is said, is coming to the University of North Carolina to study law. He has had quite a prosperous career, but his political fortunes are on the decline. We have no idea, however, that he intends to ever enter upon a professional life other than that of a professional politician. He would be far less a success at law than in politics. Politics is Butler's legitimate field. He has every requisite necessary for success in that profession—brains, craftiness, inconsistency and unscrupulousness. His affiliations are very shallow, and he is prepared to change them with every change of fortune. He feels no more delicacy in deserting a falling cause than a brakeman feels in leaping from a train plunging to destruction.

No, we do not think the Populist Senator is preparing to enter upon a quiet, humdrum law existence. He probably wishes to enlighten his understanding by a course in jurisprudence, and to lie low for a season while that eagle eye watches for the next reaction—the next eccentricity of the rude rabble—then if the wind blow in his favor he'll more than likely stem the tide.

Butler has endangered the good name of North Carolina more than once in his unpatriotic selfishness—and that was when his fame shone bright—now he would hesitate to enter into no intrigue, however deep or dark, that would revive the dim lustre of his waning star.

"O, mischief! thou art swift To enter into the thoughts of desperate men."

The people of Pennsylvania didn't want Quay to go back to the Senate, but Governor Stone did—and back he goes.

The gallant First regiment was mustered out today at Savannah, and ere this many a soldier boy in blue and brown has reached his welcome home, away from which he has been so long.

Speaker Reed, who will retire from Congress and practice at his profession, is the brainiest man in the Republican party. He has never manifested any love for the South, however, and among the Southern people he has many admirers, but no friends outside of his creed.

Senator James K. Jones has been called a crank, but it has never been denied that he has a good nerve. He has worked so hard that his old machine has worn out, yet, though the national chairmanship of the democratic party is encumbered with illimitable labor, and although the senator has had several attacks of angina pectoris, he refuses to resign and take a rest. His defiance to his health can only be compared to the contempt with which Alger contemplates the public.

Everybody will be glad when McKinley's war is over. But the end certainly seems a long way off. Shaftner, who has never seen the Philippine islands, thinks 30,000 Americans, after eliminating 10,000,000 savage factors—in other words butchering one-half of the population—can solve the problem. Oils, reposing in the shade at Manila far from the din of battle, says for a successful prosecution of the war we must send him 80,000 soldiers. Lawton who has felt the Filipinos' stings and considered the immense disadvantages which the American troops labor under, tells us that to quench the fires of liberty that burn in those people America must transport an army of 100,000 men across the seas. And the wild and woolly, unkempt and uncouth insurgent hicks his head from the jungle and blazes: "You d—d Americans never shall conquer us."

The Oxnard beet sugar factory and 3000 acres of land in Ventura County, Cal., have been transferred to the American Beet Sugar Company, of New York, for $1,500,000.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chili Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The farm on which Abraham Lincoln was born, two miles south of Hodgenville, Ky., has been sold to David Gear, of New York.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

The Missouri Legislature has passed a bill levying an inspection tax of 1 cent a gallon and 2 cents for each package of beer sold in the State.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. The raised Spanish cruiser Reina Mercedes will be towed from Santiago de Cuba next month.

The Sure La Grippe Cure. There is no use suffering from this dreadful malady, if you will only get the right remedy. You are having pain all through your body, your liver is out of order, have no appetite, no life or ambition, have a bad cold, in fact are completely used up. Electric Bitters is the only remedy that will give you prompt and sure relief. They act directly on your liver, stomach and kidneys, tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new being. They are guaranteed to cure on price refunded. For sale at C. E. Holton's drug store. Only 50 cents per bottle.

Mr. Cone's Summer Residence.

Mr. Moses H. Cone came from Blowing Rock yesterday where he has been to make contracts for his elegant summer residence, and to look after the work on his thousands of acres of land that he has bought in Carwell and Wataga on the summit of the Blue Ridge, and has planted in fruit bearing trees. There is a fine prospect of millions in the enterprise, for fine apples scarcely ever fail to bear on the mountains.—Lenoir Special to News and Observer.

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhoea. I have never had to use more than one or two doses to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. Stroud, Popomoke City, Md. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Immigration to New England of Canadians has reached unusual proportions this spring.

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile to flow to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

The Great Bargain Store

Which is daily growing to be a very popular store. We have made special efforts this season to secure a line of Furniture which embodies the essential features of elegance, style and beauty. We think we have accomplished our intention, and therefore earnestly invite your inspection.

Brass and Iron Bed Steads.

How many persons realize that in a small bedroom a Brass or Iron Bed does not seem more than two-thirds as large as a wooden one of the same size. Here is one great cause for the popularity of brass and iron beds. Then, too,

They Are So Airy and Open that they afford much better ventilation. They do not enclose the sleeper with wooden walls, shutting off all circulation of air, but there is an open frame giving the utmost ventilation. All the world knows their intrinsic cleanliness. They are as neat as wax, as clean as snow. If properly lacquered they will retain their high lustre for years.

We show the largest variety of styles and designs of any house in Greensboro and our prices will be found lower for the same grade of goods.

RAW AS BEEF
FROM ECZEMA!

No Torture Equal to the Itching and Burning of This Fearful Disease.

Eczema—which is more than skin-deep, and can not be reached by local application of ointments, salves, etc., applied to the surface. It is a disease of the real cause of the trouble, is in the blood, although all suffering is produced through the skin; the only way to reach the disease, therefore, is through the blood.

Mr. Phil T. Jones, of Mixersville, Ind., writes:
"I had Eczema thirty years, and after a great deal of treatment my leg was so raw and sore that it gave me constant pain. It finally broke into a running sore, and began to spread and grow worse. For the past five or six years I have suffered untold agony and had given up all hope of ever being free from the disease, as I have been treated by some of the best physicians and have taken many blood medicines, all in vain. With little faith I began to take S. S. S., and it apparently made the Eczema worse, but I knew that this was the remedy got rid of the poison. Continuing S. S. S., the sore healed up entirely, the skin became clear and smooth, and I was cured perfectly." Eczema is an obstinate disease and can not be cured by a remedy which is only a tonic. Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD —is superior to other blood remedies because it cures diseases which they can not reach. It goes to the bottom—to the cause of the disease—and will cure the worst case of Eczema, no matter what other treatment has failed. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to be free from potash, mercury or any other mineral, and never fails to cure Eczema, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Tetters, Rheumatism, Open Sores, Ulcers, Boils, etc. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place.
Books on these diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

Reed and Strout.

Thomas B. Reed served in the navy during the civil war, and in 1865 he returned to Portland to practice law.
As a young lawyer he displayed the same qualities of ability and aggressiveness which have been a conspicuous characteristic of his political life.
One of the strongest men at the Portland bar at the time was A. A. Strout.
Before beginning the trial of a suit it was Strout's habit to inquire of every juror as to the state of his health and impress each with the idea that the lawyer was solicitous of that juror's personal welfare.

Reed and Strout were constantly an-tagonizing each other, though they were very good friends. In nearly every case of importance Strout and Reed were on opposite sides.

It was annoying, indeed, for the suave Strout to hear Reed draw out before the opening of a case:
"Well, your honor, Brother Strout having finished his morning task of shaking hands with the jury, we may now, I hope, proceed with the business of the court."—Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Hardly Worth the Agony.
An artist of more than national fame chose the most beautiful girl in his town for a mate. Before they were married he said: "My dear, you are almost perfect. You lack but two things —your mouth is a little too small, and you are a little too thin. I wish that before we are married you would correct those two and become absolute perfection." For six months the poor girl wore a brass fixture in her mouth to stretch her jaw and ate fattening food.
Then she was married. To an intimate friend she has since confessed that the agony of that six months' jaw stretching was not worth all she since has enjoyed as the wife of a distinguished artist.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Who Whips?
The clergyman's little son was telling the small son of a parishioner of the dreadful fights which he and his sister indulged in.
"You don't mean to say that ministers' children fight?" replied the horrified little layman.
"Oh, yes."
"Who whips?"
"Mamma."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Chained Books.

The finest known collection of chained books is that in Hereford cathedral. It includes about 2,000 volumes, arranged in five bookcases, of which not less than 1,500 are secured by chains three or four feet long, each with a swivel in the center. A small collection of chained books, long forgotten, has just come to light in the vestry of the church at St. Leonards, Lincolnshire.

A GREAT CALAMITY AVERTED.

So Thinks One of Dr. Ledbetter's Brother Physicians.

We have been requested to publish the following letter: Greensboro, N. C., April 21, 99.
Dr. A. E. Ledbetter, Supt. Health.

Dear Doctor:—I am very sorry to see the anonymous attack on you in this evening's Telegram. It will probably be of some comfort to you to know that your professional brethren are very appreciative of your recent and present work in the matter of small-pox cases.

I thank you most heartily for your arduous and intelligent action, and I believe you have averted a great calamity that has, and is now threatening the community.

If you think that I can be of service to you by helping to keep up your private practice, please do not hesitate to call on me.

Very respectfully,
D. R. Schenck, M. D.

If you have piles, cure them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the results of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

White River Ute Indians, of Utah, are reported to be in an ugly mood.

John Flora, whose trial for the murder of Jessie Burton was to begin yesterday at Paoli, Ind., was fatally injured in the jail last night by a maniac.

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

house Company has acquired the Latonia Distillery.

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "famous little pills" for torpid liver and all irregularities of the system. Howard

Charged with embezzlement of $18, sociation, of Pana, Ill., ex-Secretary T. M. Weaver was yesterday convicted of taking $1, and sentenced to four months.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M.
Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Thomas Jones, internal revenue gauger, and Charles Odora were killed yesterday, near Woodland, N. C., by a boiler explosion in the distillery of B. F. Renfro.

E. Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.
Coughs and colds. I gave it a trial.

me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Tri-Wescott and daughter, Miss Margaret, and Mrs. Wescott's sister, Miss Bellows, left this morning for their future home in Knoxville, where Mr. Wescott is master of trains on the Southern, having been promoted from the position of chief train dispatcher at this place some time ago. Greensboro regrets exceedingly to lose this charming family, but wishes them happiness and prosperity in their new home.

While a Southern engine was shifting on the track near Cunningham's coal yard last night two cars were accidentally backed into the street. A box car rolled across the street and broke off a telephone pole. Car number 2, loaded with coal, stopped when half way across. No damage was done except the cutting of the sidewalk where the cars ran off. They were gotten back on the track with a small amount of trouble.

POSTAL HEARING ENDED.

Commissioners Award $10 Nominal Damages to Southern.

The argument in the Postal Telegraph case was finished yesterday afternoon, and the commissioners awarded the Southern $10 damages. The award is simply nominal, as the courts have time and again decided that there were no damages in such cases. The Postal's attorneys cited a number of cases in which the damages awarded amounted to from one to fifty dollars. In this case the court instructed the commissioners to award nominal damages according to the evidence produced. The Southern introduced no evidence whatever in the hearing.

Dr. Stamey Moves.

Dr. E. L. Stamey and family yesterday afternoon removed from their residence on South Elm street to their elegant new home just completed on the corners of Asheboro, Fayetteville and Gorrell streets, one of the loveliest and most desirable locations in the city.
